TWO BIG DEALS SAID TO HAVE BEEN CLOSED

Pittsburg Steel Company Claimed to Have Bought Site

OPPOSITE CALIFORNIA

Also Understood to Be Concerned in Purchase of Greene Co. Coal

That a 40-acre tract of land close to the Chamoni mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company, opposite California, had been purchased for a mill site, by the Pittsburg Steel Company, was information that leaked out at Monessen this morning. The deal for the land is said to have been just closed, and to have put an end to the talk of the purchase of the plant site of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company at Charleroi, or the purchase of the Irons farm opposite Charleroi. The Pittsburg Steel company is also the purchaser of a 2,000 acre tract of coal land at East Riverside, Greene county, of which announcement was made recently, without the identity of the purchasing company being given.

What the plans of the steel company are for immediate developments are not known. At the present time immense blast furnaces are being constructed and other improvements and additions being made at Monessen at a cost of millions of dollars. It is understood that additional mill space is needed. The Charleroi works of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company was considered available, and it is stated an effort was made to purchase them. The option, if there was an option was given up last week, it is stated.

The coal land bought in Greene will be developed just as it is needed. This however may not entail any new mine openings for months or even years. The plan probably will be to hold the coal as a matter of economy.

PLANS OUT FOR DONORA THEATRE

Tom B. Cowan, manager of the Star Theatre of Charleroi, to which he gives his personal attention, is branching out. A contract has been let to the Donora Lumber company for a $20,000 theatre in Donora, size 46x100 feet, which will be of brick and will be equipped for pictures and vaudeville. Work will be started at once and the building will be ready by July 4. Mr. Cowan is manager of a company that now operates a chain of theatres in the upvalley towns and is making a success.

Railroad Men Hear Lecture

Local Freight House Force Listen to Instructions on "First Aid"

Railroad men of the Charleroi freight office force attended a lecture of railroad men at Monongahela Thursday night by Dr. W. E. Westhaeffer on the subject of "First Aid." Dr. Westhaeffer discussed many phases of the subject and emphasized the necessity of being careful in the care of patients. Those present from Charleroi were E. F. Krahmer, F. E. Bonnell, Bruce Barnett, George Barnett, D. C. Whitlatch, Frank Arrison, Russell Tipples, Thomas Sloan, Geo. M. Stewart, George Hudspeth, Theodore Miller and Raymond Kent.

HOUSING PROBLEM SERIOUS

Industrial Towns of Monongahela Show Low Average

CENSUS BULLETIN OUT

Housing conditions as a whole are not to be considered exceptionally good in the industrial towns of the Monongahela valley if facts contained in the latest census bulletin are to be taken for what they seem. Of towns in this immediate section, Monongahela has the best housing and Monessen the worst. Charleroi and Donora strike a fair average. Washington, the county seat is next to Monongahela the best of the larger towns or cities in the county. Harrisburg probably has less to complain of in the way of proper housing than any large municipality in the state. Philadelphia though one of the largest cities on the American continent shows a good percentage in housing.

Owing to peculiar methods employed by the census bureau in enumerating families and counting dwellings it is pretty hard to draw any really correct conclusions. An apartment house is only one dwelling, no matter how many families live in it, of it has only one front door exit. On the other hand the tiniest kind of shack that constitutes a place of human habitation is a dwelling if it is no more than a store box with a front door.

A family is one or more persons who resides in a place. But though what is known as a flat for census purposes not a dwelling, a family can live there, or if it is large enough two families. And a matter of fact.

YOUNG MAN MEETS DEATH UNDER TRAIN

James Conaway, of Charleroi, Killed at Dunlevy, Understood to Have Been on His Way to Uniontown

Falling from a platform where he was riding on the end of a large steel coke car, James Conaway, aged 23 years, a well known young man of Charleroi, was instantly killed Thursday night at Beechwood Park. His head was crushed, but below the right eye his face was not much cut. A companion of Conaway's jumped from the train and tried to pull him from underneath, but to no avail. When picked up pieces of his skull flapped downward. His brains had been spilled out along the track. The body of young Conaway was not mangled.

It is said that Conaway was headed for Uniontown, where he is understood to have had a position waiting. He was a printer. He left Charleroi, it seems with three others. The train had stopped a short ways above Speers. Suddenly it started up. Conaway was sitting. It is said, on the small platform above the bumpers. When the bump came he was thrown off his seat and in under the car. This was about at the culvert where some years ago three members of the Hamilton family of Roscoe met death in collision.

MARRIED LIFE IN SPEERS HAS ITS DRAWBACKS

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:
"Sir—If a fellow jumps into the matrimonial harness and lives in Speers he is sure to find that the people are not going to allow the event to pass unnoticed. Quite recently a young man signed up with the benedicts and after passing around a box of cigars and shaking hands with everybody he met he foolishly concluded that the preliminaries were ended. He knows better now.

Early Monday evening a young man approached the home of the newlyweds and being met at the door by the bride asked if he could speak to the "Mister" for a moment. A little later the groom appeared, when he was seized by a dozen hands, carried outside and placed upon the back of a broncho with the stern command to stay there until the show was over. He stayed as nearly as he could while the crowd of men and boys, who had previously assembled, formed in line and with cheering and yelling paraded the borough streets.

Later they crossed the river into Belle Vernon and here is where the mistake was made. As everybody knows, Belle Vernon has been dead for ninety-eight years and when a real live crowd enters the town unannounced, it is likely to start something. A policeman, who was trying to keep a lamp post from floating across the street and wondering what made the buildings tremble saw an army of 1,400 desperadoes, led by a giant ogre, who rode astride of a mammoth mountain lion. The guardian of the peace who had earlier, it is alleged, captured several of the enemy of the W. C. T. U. at once proceeded to halt this band of wild invaders.

He informed them that they were all under arrest for violation of paragraph "D" in the revised ordinances of Belle Vernon, and cautioned them that anything they said now would be used against them before the great tribunal. Some of the boys tried to explain that they were only serenading a young benedict, but the arm of the law was firm and declaring that a man oughtn't to get married if it caused all this fuss, he "arrested" the broncho and led it—when it wasn't leading him—to the town livery.

Here admittance was denied and the great protector of public peace was compelled to release the "prisoner" and was himself taken in tow by the borough chief, who marched him away from the gaping crowd. The Speers boys all returned to their homes, well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

ANNUAL BANQUET IS NOTEWORTHY AFFAIR

Assessment For Miners

Fight to be Centered by Organization in Irwin and Connellsville Fields

At the convention of the Pittsburg District miners at Pittsburg Thursday action was taken favoring an assessment of the miners to secure funds with which to center a fight on the organization of men in the Irwin and Connellsville fields. The assessment is for one-half of one percent and it is figured it will represent about 50 cents a month to each miner who is a member of the organization. John Maurer a former member of the Pennsylvania legislature and head of the State Federation of Labor made an address before the miners.

HOUSE IS THERE TO DO WORK

Therefore It Won't Quit Until Duties Are Completed

BILLY SUNDAY COMING

Harrisburg, Feb. 21—The tactics of the senate in holding up legislation of the house, with the evident intention of killing it or letting it die a natural death for lack of time for consideration after a date for adjournment is set, has aroused the ire of the house, and war is declared in certain quarters. It is stated that a conference of the Progressive Republicans, the Progressives and the Democrats has been held, and the statement is given out that the house proposes to fight it out on that line if it takes all summer. The announcement is made that no date for adjournment will be agreed upon until action on the legislation pledged and demanded by the people is assured.

Next week promises to be an exciting one. Rev. Billy Sunday, who is holding a series of meetings in Wilkes Barre, is expected to address the house previous to the opening of the local option fight. Tuesday the local option bill will come up for second reading, when the first test of strength will be made. If the bill passes, it will likely come up for final passage Wednesday.

The house passed finally on Thursday the Jones bill fixing the penalties for illegally "assisting" a voter in marking his ballot.

A bill has been introduced making the daisy the official state flower and fixing June 14 as "Daisy day."

The house adjourned Thursday evening until Monday night.

Belle Vernon Civic Club Holds Annual Celebration

GOOD SPEAKERS THERE

Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen and J. B. Yohe Make Interesting Addresses

"If you want a blazer town, there is only one way to get it, and that is to cut out all personal animosities, selfish interests and to all work together for the common good. If you want a better town, there is only one way to get it, and that is by changing the hearts of men. You cannot compel men to be good. The goodness must come from within. When all the people want a good town you will get it. Civic righteousness must be brought about by changing the hearts of the people and causing them to stand for better conditions. You cannot legislate this by law."

This stirring declaration was one of the strong points made in Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen's address in response to the toast, "The World is Getting Better," at the fifth annual banquet of the Civic League of Belle Vernon Friday night. Very forcibly and eloquently the speaker made it manifest that he world is getting better and that the law of brotherhood and humanity was never so fully observed as at the present time. It is well that people differ and that all men do not think alike. The decay of the world will begin, the speaker said, when all men begin to see things from the same angle.

The banquet was held in Iroquois Hall, where a most delectable menu was daintily served by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church, who with ample help rendered perfect service. Ceiling decorations in blue and gold, the colors of the club, gave a most artistic effect, while the wall decorations of flags and pennants constituted most charming appointments. Previous to the banquet a reception was held at the Odd Fellows' hall, where the speakers and guests greeted the lives wires of the Belle Vernon Civic League which is the whole bunch.

In the neighborhood of 100 members and guests were present at the banquet. Before being seated Rev. R. B. Mansell pronounced an invocation and at the conclusion of the banquet President E. L. Seers in a few well chosen words welcomed the guests and introduced Tom. C. McKinley, manager of the American Window Glass factory at Belle Vernon, as toastmaster. The latter, with a happy allusion to some of the personalities of the various speakers, introduced them in order.

Following Judge Van Swearingen, who was the first speaker, J. B. Yohe, general manager of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad, responded to the toast of "Personality and Co-operation in Business." As the speaker is a native of the Monongahela valley and the great success of the railroad corporation he represents has been largely achieved by the close personal touch its officials have with the towns, individuals and

A VITAL TRUTH.

In declaring that there is only one way in which to get a better town,
and that is in changing the hearts of men, Judge J. Q. Swearingen of Fayette county, in his speech at the Belle Vernon Civic Club banquet, stated a vital truth. This is evidenced by the great wave in civic righteousness that is following in the wake of the greatest religious evangelistic movement the world has ever witnessed. It has been demonstrated that the way to regenerate society is to first regenerate the individual. When an individual begins to see a new light in his duty toward his fellow man and to society in general and to work co-operatively for the common good, better civic conditions are attained.

Better government, one of the three great economic essentials of society today, is being slowly attained by the regeneration of the individual,
who by being brought to a realization of the duty he owes to his God is also made to realize that he owes a corresponding duty to his fellow man.
As the latter is most clearly and forcibly defined, and as the regenerated individual is made to realize his personal responsibility for the things that are his civic duties become in-separably interwoven with his religious duties. This makes better men, and better men make better government, in the town, the county, the state and the national government.
No government can ever be better than the people who compose it, and if people want a better town, county or state, the only way to attain it is to travel that way themselves.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

At the banquet of the Civic League of Belle Vernon last night, Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen of Fayette county, who was one of the speakers
told a story of a man in Michigan,
who, having accumulated a fortune
by a lucky turn of the Pickle Goddess' wheel, went to Detroit, where he made a big effort to impress his standing and importance on the community. He wore flashy clothes, sported diamonds of extraordinary size, and rode about in the most expensive touring car that could be procured.
While he did not cut so much of a swath in the city of Detroit, he derived considerable satisfaction at a country residence he purchased near a small town, where he apparently impressed the natives with his importance.

One day while riding out in the country in his car, he was caught in a terrific rainstorm. His fine clothes were ruined and to cap the climax, the car skidded and upset. He could not wait to replenish his wardrobe in the city, so he telegraphed to his tailor there for his measurements, and when they arrived took them to a local tailor and said:

"Now I want a suit of clothes made exactly by these measurements. I do not want them to vary a hair.
Just follow the figures literally and you'll be right."

The tailor agreed to do so, and in due time the suit was finished and delivered. When the magnate donned it, he found it to be skin tight. Going back to the tailor he exclaimed wrathfully:

"I thought I told you to make this suit according to the measurements
I gave you?"

"I complied with your order exactly," replied the tailor, "and followed the measurements to the letter."

"You certainly did not," replied the magnate. "I've had suit after suit made from these measurements in Detroit, and none of them fitted so tightly as yours. Why, that one is so tight that I can hardly get into it." Now I propose to sue you."

"If you do," said the tailor, "I can bring a hundred witnesses to prove that you're a bigger man up here
than you are down in Detroit."

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI.

With perhaps the greatest feature
yet produced in the house, the Coyle Theatre opened Monday for a momentous week in motion pictures.
The great production of "Satan" on Monday and Tuesday night drew capacity houses, and was highly appreciated by the patrons of the Coyle.
"White Man's Firewater," "How He Won Her," and "The Wild Flower of Pine Mountains" was the Wednesday bill which embraced photoplays of a high order. Thursday's bill was composed of "Gold is Not All,"
and "The Angelus." The former was a two reel Imp, with King Baggot,
the popular actor in the leading role,
and a new leading lady, who by the way, is a good one, Miss Jane Gale,
who has been working in the Lubin film company. Miss Gale shows in "All is Not Gold," that she has rare capacity as an actress. The play is one of theatrical life with a deep human interest, and is most charmingly portrayed. Friday night the Boy's Brigade have the house for the benefit of their inaugural fund, and for this occasion manager Coyle has secured "Andrew Jackson," a historical offering. This is in two reels and shows some of the most exciting episodes of "Old Hickory's" life before he attained the presidency. With a Powers, an Imp and a Bison film for Saturday, the Coyle closes a most extraordinary week of features.

PALACE-CHARLEROI.

That the people of Charleroi are hungry for vaudeville was again demonstrated at the Palace Theatre
Thursday night, where a strong bill opened for a three days' engagement or the balance of the week. Long before the doors opened for the evening performance the crowds began lining up, and before each show was concluded the thoroughfare in front of the theatre was blocked by the waiting crowds. An exceptionally strong program was rendered, composed of two teams and a single act,
any one of which would have been a top liner for a vaudeville program.
William McKee & Co., in the comedy playlet, "Honest John McGuire," give a most laughable and amusing entertainment that is clean, sprightly and full of amusing situations. The Lo-leta Sisters, "the little pink ladies,"
are most engaging and sprightly
dancers, and their combined charm
and art make them at once favorites.
They not only dance gracefully and artistically, but they sing most enchantingly, and give an entertainment that every one enjoys. Howard Wolf, the musical artist, renders popular and classical music a tistica-lly on a variety of instruments, every one of which he is a master. In addition are the regular three reels of pictures, which constitutes a comprehensive and enjoyable program.
The same acts, with a change of moving pictures will be presented tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI.

Circus life always has a deep attraction to the public, and this was most graphically portrayed this week at the Star Theatre in the two-reel film, "In the Lion's Den, or Life With a Circus." "Law of the West," a three reel Key Bee, made a strong companion to the circus film, and the Monday's bill opened with these five reels. Beginning this week Manager
Cowan will introduce a new feature.

In taking the census, Census Supervisor C. O. Frye and his corps of workers found in some cases five or six families in a house, yet the house would be considered only one dwelling.

By comparisons it is shown that in Charleroi there are 1,000 families to every 851 dwellings; in Monongahela
1,000 families to every 832 dwellings;
in Monongahela 1,000 families to every 940 dwellings; in Monessen 1, 000 families to every 651 dwellings;
in Washington 1,000 families to every 925 dwellings; in Pittsburgh 1,000 families to every 787 dwellings; in Philadelphia 1,000 families to every 901
dwellings and in Harrisburg 1,000 families to every 959 families.

Only one municipality in the state having over 2,500 population makes a perfect accord. In McAdoo are 601 dwellings to 601 families, or dwelling for every family. McAdoo is in Schuylkill county. Sharpsville, Mercer county is nearly perfect, having 799 families living in 798 dwellings.

Askley in Luzerne county makes the same kind of a record having 634 dwellings and 635 families. There is not a town in the state of course that shows more dwellings than families.

HELP FOR WORKING GIRLS

Two Girls Tell Story of Their Illness and How They Found Relief.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 613 Seventh Street, New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because my periods were suppressed and I had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them." —Miss ESTELLA MACURE, 110 Thwing St., Saint Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

She Had Consumption, Was Dying; Now Well

Eckman's Alternative is being used with success in the treatment of Tuberculosis in all parts of the country. Persons who have taken it, improved, gained weight, exhausted night sweats stopped, fever diminished, and many recovered. If you are interested to know more about it, we will put you in touch with some who are now well. You can investigate and judge for yourself. Read of Mrs. Goret's recovery.

"Gentlemen: Thinking that perhaps a short history of the remarkable recovery of my mother-in-law (Mrs. Anna Goret) might benefit some other sufferers, I give the following testimony: About September 10, 1908, she was taken sick with Catarrhal Pneumonia, and continually grew worse, requiring a trained nurse. Night sweats were so bad that it was necessary to change her clothing once or twice every night; her cough increased and got so bad that everybody expected that she would not live much longer. In January, when Rev. Wm. Berg, of St. Michael's Church, at Shesville, Ind., prepared for her death, he recommended that I get Eckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. I then requested the attending physician to give his diagnosis and he informed me that she had Consumption and was beyond all medical aid. When I asked if he thought that it was useless to try the Alternative, he replied that 'No physician could help her any and I could suit myself about it.' So I immediately had Rev. Wm. Berg to send for Eckman's Alternative without hope for recovery. I insisted that she try the Alternative, which she did. I am glad to say that she soon began to improve. Now she works as hard as ever, weighs twenty pounds heavier than she ever did before she took Eckman's Alternative. She frankly says she owes her life and health to Eckman's Alternative."

Remington Typewriter

are Visible Writers—and more.

These new Remington models supply visible writing under new conditions—without loss of efficiency.

To realize what this means—the combination of Remington strength with visible writing—note the type bars. Note them specially. See how they are hung in a double row. This gives room for the broad pivot bearings. Note the bar itself, the strong, rigid bar, the Remington bar you have always known, made from a steel drop forging. Compare this bar with the ordinary thin bar, stamped out of sheet steel, and you will understand one reason why the very name "Remington" stands for Strength and Reliability in a Typewriter.

Father of his Country

A young man of the 18th century saved his country and became "first in peace, first in war and first in the hearts of his countrymen"—and gained the title of "Father of his Country."
The young man of today who saves a goodly portion of his earnings will be the one to command first place in his community—and he won't need to make nearly as great a sacrifice as did Washington.

business interests along the route, a most practical application of the subject was given.

"Civic Co-operation" was the topic of the toast responded to by E. C. Sattley, manager of the Monessen Plant of the Page Woven Wire Fence company. His theme was along the line of the civic well being of the community, which works for better and more cordial relations between industrial corporations and their employees, as well as all other interests. J. C. Grooms, claims agent of the P. & L. E. road made a brief address, and W. A. Coughenous, a former resident of Belle Vernon, but now of Idaho, and an ex-state senator gave some interesting reminiscences. Others were called upon and responded, and incidentally the announcement was made that Belle Vernon would next year celebrate its centennial.

John Jenkins' orchestra rendered delightful music, and the crowd joined in singing at intervals, "America," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Old Black Joe," and others, ending with "Auld Lang Syne." Those present from Charleroi were President John B. Schafer, of the local Business Men's Association, R. H. Rush and E. C. Niver, E. C. Phillips, F. H. Steen and J. O. Clawson constituted the entertainment committee, while the banquet committee was composed of E. C. Thompson, R. W. Lange, L. L. Reeves, S. C. Schum, and J. W. Vance.

Pittsburg Steel Company Claimed to Have Bought Site

OPPOSITE CALIFORNIA

Also Understood to Be Concerned in Purchase of Greene Co. Coal

That a 40-acre tract of land close to the Chamoni mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company, opposite California, had been purchased for a mill site by the Pittsburg Steel Company, was information that leaked out at Monessen this morning. The deal for the land is said to have been just closed and to have put an end to the talk of the purchase of the plant site of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company at Charleroi, or the purchase of the Irons farm opposite Charleroi. The Pittsburg Steel company is also the purchaser of a 2,000 acre tract of coal land at East Riverside, Greene county, of which announcement was made recently, without the identity of the purchasing company being given.

What the plans of the steel company are for immediate developments are not known. At the present time immense blast furnaces are being constructed and other improvements and additions being made at Monessen at a cost of millions of dollars. It is understood that additional mill space is needed. The Charleroi works of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company was considered available, and it is stated an effort was made to purchase them. The option, if there was an option was given up last week, it is stated.

The coal land bought in Greene will be developed just as it is needed. This however may not entail any new mine openings for months or even years. The plan probably will be to hold the coal as a matter of economy.

PLANS OUT FOR DONORA THEATRE

Tom B. Cowan, manager of the Star Theatre of Charleroi, to which he gives his personal attention, is branching out. A contract has been let to the Donora Lumber company for a $20,000 theatre in Donora, size 46x100 feet, which will be of brick and will be equipped for pictures and vaudeville. Work will be started at once and the building will be ready by July 4. Mr. Cowan is manager of a company that now operates a chain of theatres in the upvalley towns and is making a success.

Railroad Men Hear Lecture

Local Freight House Force Listen to Instructions on "First Aid"

Railroad men of the Charleroi freight office force attended a lecture of railroad men at Monongahela Thursday night by Dr. W. E. Westhaeffer on the subject of "First Aid." Dr. Westhaeffer discussed many phases of the subject and emphasized the necessity of being careful in the care of patients. Those present from Charleroi were E. F. Krahmer, F. E. Bonnell, Bruce Barnett, George Barnett, D. C. Whitlatch, Frank Arrison, Russell Tippins, Thomas Sloan, Geo. M. Stewart, George Hudspeth, Theodore Miller and Raymond Kent.

Industrial Towns of Monongahela Show Low Average

CENSUS BULLETIN OUT

Housing conditions as a whole are not to be considered exceptionally good in the industrial towns of the Monongahela valley if facts contained in the latest census bulletin are to be taken for what they seem. Of towns in this immediate section, Monongahela has the best housing and Monessen the worst. Charleroi and Donora strike a fair average. Washington, the county seat is next to Monongahela the best of the larger towns or cities in the county. Harrisburg probably has less to complain of in the way of proper housing than any large municipality in the state. Philadelphia though one of the largest cities on the American continent shows a good percentage in housing.

In housing, to peculiar methods employed by the census bureau in enumerating families and counting dwellings it is pretty hard to draw any really correct conclusions. An apartment house is only one dwelling, no matter how many families live in it, of it has only one front door exit. On the other hand the tiniest kind of shack that constitutes a place of human habitation is a dwelling if it is no more than a store box with a front door.

A family is one or more persons who resides in a place. But though what is known as a flat for census purposes not a dwelling, a family can live there, or if it is large enough two families. And a matter of fact.

YOUNG MAN MEETS DEATH UNDER TRAIN

James Conaway, of Charleroi, Killed at Dunlevy, Understood to Have Been on His Way to Uniontown

Falling from a platform where he was riding on the end of a large steel coke car, James Conaway, aged 23 years, a well known young man of Charleroi, was instantly killed Thursday night at Dunlevy Park. His head was crushed, but below the right eye his face was not much cut. A companion of Conaway's jumped from the train and tried to pull him from underneath, but to no avail. When picked up pieces of his skull flapped downward. His brains had been spilled out along the track. The body of young Conaway was not mangled.

It is said that Conaway was headed for Uniontown, where he is understood to have told he had a position waiting. He was a printer. He left Charleroi, it seems with three others. The train had stopped a short ways above Speers. Suddenly it started up. Conaway was sitting, it is said, on the small platform above the bumpers. When the bump came he was thrown off his seat and in under the car. This was about at the culvert where some years ago three members of the Hamilton family of Rescoe met death in collision.

Kenneth Matson, said to have been one of the companions of Conaway, jumped from the train, and ran alongside the car trying to pull the young man out. His efforts were in vain.

Coroner James T. Heffran of Speers and Deputy Coroner Lawrence B. Frye of Charleroi were both notified after the body had been removed from under the train and the latter went to Dunlevy to bring back the body. It was taken to the undertaking rooms of J. O. Wycoff. Maston and George Dish both returned to Charleroi but the man said to have been the third member of the party went on.

Conaway was the son of Mrs. Flora Conaway of Fallowfield avenue. He was formerly employed in the mail composing rooms and was a good workman. Two sisters survive, Mrs. Skiles Massay, of Brownsville and Mrs. Doss T. James of Pittsburg.

Arrangements have been made to hold the funeral services at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

MARRIED LIFE IN SPEERS HAS ITS DRAWBACKS

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:
Sir—If a fellow jumps into the matrimonial harness and lives in Speers he is sure to find that the people are not going to allow the event to pass unnoticed. Quite recently a young man signed up with the benedictines and after passing around a box of cigars and shaking hands with everybody he met he foolishly concluded that the preliminaries were ended. He knows better now.

Early Monday evening a young man approached the home of the newlyweds and being met at the door by the bride asked if he could speak to the "olister" for a moment. A little later the groom appeared, when he was seized by a dozen hands, carried outside and placed upon the back of a bench with the stern command to stay there until the show was over. He stayed as nearly as he could while the crowd of men and boys, who had previously assembled, formed in line and with cheering and yelling paraded the borough streets.

Later they crossed the river into Belle Vernon and here is where the mistake was made. As everybody knows, Belle Vernon has been dead for ninety-eight years and when a real live crowd enters the town unannounced, it is likely to start something. A policeman, who was trying to keep a lamp post from floating across the street and wondering what made the buildings tremble saw an army of 1,400 desperadoes, led by a giant ogre, who rode astride of a mammoth mountain lion. The guardian of the peace who had earlier, it is alleged, captured several of the enemy of the W. C. T. U. at once proceeded to halt this band of wild invaders.

He informed them that they were all under arrest for violation of paragraph "D" in the revised ordinances of Belle Vernon, and cautioned them that anything they said now would be used against them before the great tribunal. Some of the boys tried to explain that they were only serenading a young benedict, but the arm of the law was firm and declaring that a man oughtn't to get married if it caused all this fuss, he "arrested" the broncho and led it when it wasn't leading him—to the town livery.

Here admittance was denied and the great protector of public peace was compelled to release the "prisoner" and was himself taken in tow by the borough chief, who marched him away from the gaping crowd. The Speers boys all returned to their homes, well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

ANNUAL BANQUET IS NOTEWORTHY AFFAIR

Assessment For Miners

Fight to be Centered by Organization in Irwin and Connellsville Fields

At the convention of the Pittsburg District miners at Pittsburg Thursday action was taken favoring an assessment of the miners to secure funds with which to conduct a fight on the organization of men in the Irwin and Connellsville fields. The assessment is for one-half of one percent and it is figured it will represent about 50 cents a month to each miner who is a member of the organization. John Maurer a former member of the Pennsylvania legislature and head of the State Federation of Labor made an address before the miners.

HOUSE IS THERE TO DO WORK

Therefore It Won't Quit Until Duties Are Completed

BILLY SUNDAY COMING

Harrisburg, Feb. 21—The tactics of the senate in holding up legislation of the house, with the evident intention of killing it or letting it die a natural death for lack of time for consideration after a date for adjournment is set, has aroused the ire of the house, and war is declared in certain quarters. It is stated that a conference of the Progressive Republicans, the Progressives and the Democrats has been held, and the statement is given out that the house proposes to fight it out on that line if it takes all summer. The announcement is made that no date for adjournment will be agreed upon until action on the legislation pledged and demanded by the people is assured.

Next week promises to be an exciting one. Rev. Billy Sunday, who is holding a series of meetings in Wilkes Barre, is expected to address the house previous to the opening of the local option fight. Tuesday the local option bill will come up for second reading, when the first test of strength will be made. If the bill passes, it will likely come up for final passage Wednesday.

The house passed finally on Thursday the Jones bill fixing the penalties for illegally "assisting" a voter in marking his ballot.

A bill has been introduced making the daisy the official state flower and fixing June 14 as "Daisy day."

The house adjourned Thursday evening until Monday night.

Elle Vernon Civic Club Holds Annual Celebration

GOOD SPEAKERS THERE

Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen and J. B. Yohe Make Interesting Addresses

"If you want a bigger town, there is only one way to get it, and that is to cut out all personal animosities, selfish interests and to all work together for the common good. If you want a better town, there is only one way to get it, and that is by changing the hearts of men. You cannot compel men to be good. The goodness must come from within. When all the people want a good town you will get it. Civic righteousness must be brought about by changing the hearts of the people and causing them to stand for better conditions. You cannot legislate this by law."

This stirring declaration was one of the strong points made in Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen's address in response to the toast, "The World is Getting Better," at the fifth annual banquet of the Civic League of Belle Vernon Friday night. Very forcibly and eloquently the speaker made it manifest that the world is getting better and that the law of brotherhood and humanity was never so fully observed as at the present time. It is well that people differ and that all men do not think alike. The decay of the world will begin, the speaker said, when all men begin to see things from the same angle.

The banquet was held in Iroquois Hall, where a most delectable menu was daintily served by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church, who with ample help rendered perfect service. Ceiling decorations in blue and gold, the colors of the club, gave a most artistic effect, while the wall decorations of flags and pennants constituted most charming appointments. Previous to the banquet a reception was held at the Odd Fellows' hall, where the speakers and guests greeted the lives wires of the Belle Vernon Civic League which is the whole bunch.

In the neighborhood of 100 members and guests were present at the banquet. Before being seated Rev. R. B. Mansell pronounced an invocation and at the conclusion of the banquet President E. L. Seers in a few well chosen words welcomed the guests and introduced Tom C. McKinley, manager of the American Window Glass factory at Belle Vernon, as toastmaster. The latter, with a happy allusion to some of the personalities of the various speakers, introduced them in order.

Following Judge Van Swearingen, who was the first speaker, J. B. Yohe, general manager of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad, responded to the toast of "Personality and Co-operation in Business." As the speaker is a native of the Monongahela valley and the great success of the railroad corporation he represents has been largely achieved by the close personal touch its officials have with the towns, individuals and

A VITAL TRUTH.

In declaring that there is only one way in which to get a better town, and that is in changing the hearts of men, Judge J. Q. Swearingen of Fayette county, in his speech at the Belle Vernon Civic Club banquet, stated a vital truth. This is evidenced by the great wave in civic righteousness that is following in the wake of the greatest religious evangelistic movement the world has ever witnessed. It has been demonstrated that the way to regenerate society is to first regenerate the individual. When an individual begins to see a new light in his duty toward his fellow man and to society in general and to work co-operatively for the common good, better civic conditions are attained.

Better government, one of the three great economic essentials of society today, is being slowly attained by the regeneration of the individual, who by being brought to a realization of the duty he owes to his God is also made to realize that he owes a corresponding duty to his fellow man. As the latter is most clearly and forcibly defined, and as the regenerated individual is made to realize his personal responsibility for the things that are his civic duties become inseparably interwoven with his religious duties. This makes better men, and better men make better government, in the town, the county, the state and the national government. No government can ever be better than the people who compose it, and if people want a better town, county, or state, the only way to attain it is to travel that way themselves.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

At the banquet of the Civic League of Belle Vernon last night, Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen of Fayette county, who was one of the speakers, told a story of a man in Michigan, who, having accumulated a fortune by a lucky turn of the Fickle Goddess' wheel, went to Detroit, where he made a big effort to impress his standing and importance on the community. He wore flashy clothes, sported diamonds of extraordinary size, and rode about in the most expensive touring car that could be procured. While he did not cut so much of a swish in the city of Detroit, he derived considerable satisfaction at a country residence he purchased near a small town, where he apparently impressed the natives with his importance.

One day while riding out in the country in his car, he was caught in a terrific rainstorm. His line clothes were ruined and to cap the climax, the car skidded and upset. He could not wait to replenish his wardrobe in the city, so he telegraphed to his tailor there for his measurements, and when they arrived took them to a local tailor and said:

"Now I want a suit of clothes made exactly by these measurements. I do not want them to vary a hair. Just follow the figures literally and you'll be right."

The tailor agreed to do so, and in due time the suit was finished and delivered. When the magnate donned it, he found it to be skin tight. Going back to the tailor he exclaimed wrathfully:

"I thought I told you to make this suit according to the measurements I gave you?"

"I complied with your order, exactly," replied the tailor, "and followed the measurements to the letter."

"You certainly did not," replied the magnate. "I've had suit after suit made from those measurements in Detroit, and none of them fitted so tightly as yours. Why, that one is so tight that I can hardly get into it." Now I

"If you do," said the tailor, "I can bring a hundred witnesses to prove that you're a bigger man up here than you are down in Detroit."

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI.

With perhaps the greatest feature yet produced in the house, the Coyle Theatre opened Monday for a momentous week in motion pictures. The great production of "Satan" on Monday and Tuesday night drew capacity houses, and was highly appreciated by the patrons of the Coyle. "White Man's Firewater," "How He Won Her," and "The Wild Flower of Pine Mountains" was the Wednesday bill which embraced photoplays of a high order. Thursday's bill was composed of "Gold is Not All," and "The Angelus." The former was a two reel Imp, with King Baggot, the popular actor in the leading role, and a new leading lady, who by the way, is a good one, Miss Jane Gale, who has been working in the Lubin film company. Miss Gale shows in "All is Not Gold," that she has rare capacity as an actress. The play is one of theatrical life with a deep human interest. Friday night the Boy's Brigade have the house for the benefit of their inaugural fund, and for this occasion manager Coyle has secured "Andrew Jackson," a historical offering. This is in two reels and shows some of the most exciting episodes of "Old Hickory's" life before he attained the presidency. With a Powers, an Imp and a Bison film for Saturday, the Coyle closes a most extraordinary week of features.

PALACE-CHARLEROI.

That the people of Charleroi are hungry for vaudeville was again demonstrated at the Palace Theatre Thursday night, where a strong bill opened for a three days' engagement: or the balance of the week. Long before the doors opened for the evening performance the crowds began lining up, and before each show was concluded the thoroughfare in front of the theatre was blocked by the waiting crowds. An exceptionally strong program was rendered, composed of two teams and a single act, any one of which would have been a top liner for a vaudeville program. William McKee & Co., in the comedy playlet, "Honest John McGuire," give a most laughable and amusing entertainment that is clean, sprightly and full of amusing situations. The Loretta Sisters, "the little pink ladies," are most engaging and sprightly dancers, and their combined charm and art make them at once favorites. They not only dance gracefully and artistically, but they sing most charmingly, and give an entertainment that every one enjoys. Howard Wolf, the musical artist, renders popular and classical music artistically on a variety of instruments, every one of which he is a master. In addition are the regular three reels of pictures, which constitutes a comprehensive and enjoyable program. The same acts, with a charge of moving pictures will be presented tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI.

Circus life always has a deep attraction to the public, and this was most graphically portrayed this week at the Star Theatre in the two-reel film, "In the Lion's Den, or Life With a Circus." "Law of the West," a three reel Key Bee, made a strong companion to the circus film, and the Monday's bill opened with these five reels. Beginning this week Manager Cowan will introduce a new feature.

Saturday's bill, which is a feature day on account of it's being a holiday, will have "The Great Ocean Disaster" in two reels, a thrilling story of a fire at sea, the "Mutual Weekly," and "Duty and the Man." The latter is a magnificent two reel production, a powerful drama of the Royal Northwest mounted police. It is staged by Oscar C. Apfel, with James Ashley, the eminent actor, in the leading role.

In taking the census, Census Supervisor C. O. Frye and his corps of workers found in some cases five or six families in a house, yet the house would be considered only one dwelling.

By comparisons it is shown that in Charleroi there are 1,000 families to every 851 dwellings; in Monongahela 1,000 families to every 940 dwellings; in Monessen 1,000 families to every 651 dwellings; in Washington 1,000 families to every 925 dwellings; in Pittsburgh 1,000 families to every 787 dwellings; in Philadelphia 1,000 families to every 901 dwellings and in Harrisburg 1,000 families to every 959 families.

Only one municipality in the state having over 2,500 population makes a perfect accord in McAdoo are 601 dwellings to 601 families, or dwelling for every family. McAdoo is in Schuylkill county. Sharpville, Mercer county is nearly perfect, having 799 families living in 798 dwellings. Askley in Luzerne county makes the same kind of a record having 634 dwellings and 635 families. There is not a town in the state of course that shows more dwellings than families.

HELP FOR WORKING GIRLS

Two Girls Tell Story of Their Illness and How They Found Relief.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 613 Seventh Street, New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because my periods were suppressed and I had pains in my back and sides and my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them." —Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., Saint Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

She Had Consumption

Was Dying; Now Well

Eckman's Alternative is being used with success in the treatment of Tuberculosis in all parts of the country. Persons who have taken it, improved, gained weight, exhausting night sweats stopped, force diminished, and many recovered. If you are interested to know more about it, we will put you in touch with some who are now well. You can investigate and judge for yourself. Read of Mrs. Gore's recovery. Griffith, Ind.

"Gentlemen: Thinking that perhaps a short history of the remarkable recovery of my mother-in-law (Mrs. Anna Gore) might benefit some other sufferers, I give the following testimonial: About September 10, 1908, she was taken sick with Catarrhal Pneumonia, and continually grew worse, requiring a trained nurse. Night sweats were so bad that it was necessary to change her clothing once or twice every night; her cough increased and got so bad that everybody expected that she would not live much longer. In January, when Rev. Wm. Berg, of St. Michael's Church, at Shreveport, Ind., prepared for her death, he recommended that I get Eckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. I then requested the attending physician to give me a diagnosis and he informed me that she had Consumption and was beyond all medical aid. When I asked if he thought that it was useless to try the Alternative, he replied that 'No physician could help her any and I could suit myself about it.' So I immediately had Rev. Wm. Berg to send for a bottle. Practically without hope for recovery, I let her try the Alternative, which she did. I am glad to say that she soon began to improve. Now she works as hard as ever, weighs twenty pounds heavier than she ever did before she took sick, and is in good health. She frankly says she owes her life and health to Eckman's Alternative." (Signed Affidavit) JOS. GRIMMER, Eckman's Alternative is effective in: Brachitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Thrush and Lung Trouble, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet 'Filling of recovery' and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa. for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists. Sold by W. F. Hennings.

Remington Typewriter

are Visible Writers—and more.

These new Remington models supply visible writing under new conditions—without loss of efficiency.

To realize what this means—the combination of Remington strength with visible writing—note the type bars. Note them specially. See how they are hung in a double row. This gives room for the broad pivot bearings. Note the bar itself, the strong, rigid bar, the Remington bar you have always known, made from a steel drop forging. Compare this bar with the ordinary thin bar, stamped out of sheet steel, and you will understand one reason why the very name "Remington" stands for Strength and Reliability in a Typewriter.

"Civic Co-operation" was the topic of the toast responded to by E. C. Sattley, manager of the Monessen Plant of the Page Woven Wire Fence company. His theme was along the line of the civic well being of the community, which works for better and more cordial relations between industrial corporations and their employees, as well as all other interests. J. C. Grooms, claims agent of the P. & L. E. road made a brief address, and W. A. Coughenous, a former resident of Belle Vernon, but now of Idaho, and an ex-state senator gave some interesting reminiscences. Others were called upon and responded, and incidentally the announcement was made that Belle Vernon would next year celebrate its centennial.

John Jenkins' orchestra rendered delightful music, and the crowd joined in singing at intervals, "America," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Old Black Joe," and others, ending with "Auld Lang Syne." Those present from Charleroi were President John B. Schafer of the local Business Men's Association, R. H. Rush and E. C. Niver. E. C. Phillips, F. H. Steen and J. O. Clawson constituted the entertainment committee, while the banquet committee was composed of E. C. Thompson, R. W. Lange, L. L. Reeves, S. C. Schum, and J. W. Vance.
